NEW HAVEN'S DOMINATION BY MORGAN IS TOLD BY MELLEN

REMARKABLE STORY IS RESUMED TODAY

FORMER PRESIDENT NOT ASHAMED TO BE KNOWN AS FINANCIER'S OFFICE BOY

CONNECTION WITH TAMMANY

Late Police Inspector's Name Mentioned. Mellen Gives Testimony Composedly and Smilingly

By Associated Press.

Washingtn, May 19.—Charles S. Mellen today resumed the remarkable story he is unfolding before the Interstate Commerce Commission concerning the vast and complicated financial operations of the New Haven railroad and its various subsidiaries. Chief Counsel Folk of the Commission developed the dominant part taken in the transaction by prominent men on the New Haven board of directors, and more particularly by the late J. Pierpont Morgan and William Rockefeller.

Mr. Mellen told his detail of his relations and differences with Mr. Morgan. He went fully into the acquisition of the New York, Westchester and Boston roads by the New Haven. This brought out further references to the part taken by the late police inspector, Thomas F. Byrnes of New York, who, Mr. Mellen testified, operated "through the people of Fourteenth street where you know Tammany Hall is located."

Cabinet Action Rumored

While the hearing was in progress, President Wilson and the cabinet were in conference and it was reported from several sources that Attorney General McReynolds had brought up before the cabinet the subject of the New Haven inquiry. Neither the attorney general or other members of the cabinet would discuss the subject when they left the meeting.

Mr. Mellen when questioned about differences with Mr. Morgan over the Westchester deal told a conversation with Mr. Morgan which he said greatly humiliated him. At first he hesitated to relate the conversation because Mr. Morgan was dead. When pressed for an answer he said Morgan had asked him if he thought he knew more about how a report on the Westchester ought to have been drawn than Mr. Morgan did. Mr. Folk asked:

Were you afraid of Mr. Morgan?"

"You might call it cowardice. I held Mr. Morgan in more awe than any other man I ever knew." Mr. Mellen answered the rapid fire of questions with seeming composure and frequently evoked laughter by some sally.

Mellen carried a large box of private papers and memoranda. He smiled at the greetings of friends and seemed composed for the examination about to begin. Beginning his testimony, Mr. Mellen told how he had become president of the Northern Pacific, a position he held for six years. J. Pierpont Morgan, he said, was responsible for naming him president of the Northern Pacific. Mr. Mellen testified Mr. Morgan called him on the telephone and the conversation was about as follows:

Conversation With Morgan.

"That you, Mr. Mellen?"

"Yes."

"Can anybody hear?"

"Will you take the Northern Pacific presidency?"

"Yes."

"Leave all the details to me?"

"Yes."

About two or three weeks later, Mr. Mellen testified he became president. He did not know, he said, when he took the office, what the salary would be. He added that he knew it would be "all right." Mr. Folk asked:

"While you were present of the Northern Pacific was the matter of the New Haven presidency taken up?"

"Yes, Mr. Morgan told me he would make me president of the New Haven."

Morgan's "Office Boy."

"As president of the New Haven, what was your relation with Mr. Morgan?"

"That is difficult to answer."

"Were you Morgan's man?"

"I have been called his office boy," Mr. Mellen laughingly replied.

"What would you say as to the relations?"

"I was proud of his confidence and proud to be called his man. I thought a great deal of Mr. Morgan."

"Did you carry out his policies?"

"I do not know that he had any policies."

"What was the relative importance of the directors as related to Morgan?"

"That is giving an opinion. We regarded Morgan as a man of ability, experience and capacity. I recall no case in which he did not have his way."

Road's Financial Policy.

"How many directors shaped the road's financial policy?"

"There was a committee of three or four—Morgan, Rockefeller, Brooker and - think, at one time, Ledyard. Morgan and Rockefeller were the only ones who remained on thecommittee all the time I was president."

"Did you give Mr. Schiff opportunity to bid on those bonds?"

"I think not."

"Why not?"

"I think it was considered that the bonds were satisfactorily placed elsewhere. I had no authority personally to place the bonds; that was within the power of the finance committee."

"What would have happened had you turned over those bonds to Kuhn, Loeb & Company?"

Might Have Lost Job.

"I should have felt I properly might have been dismissed," was Mellen's emphatic reply. Mr. Folk then asked:

"How did you happen to get the 8,000 shares of New Haven stock which were to have been exchanged for Westchester stock?"

"Mr. Byrnes, former police inspector of New York, asked that the shares be placed in my hands so that he might not have to deal with a corporation. That was natural. As to the exchange of this stock, an impression is abroad concerning the new due bills that I gave; that is erroneous. I think I gave due bills aggregating about $20,000 totaling about two dozen due bills. I don't think any cash was paid in the Westchester transaction, except for such due bill as I gave. In such circumstances I paid my own cash and took the stock. Thus I became quite a stockholder; I frequently paid dividends to holders of the stock. These persons were sent to me by Inspector Byrnes."

Opposed To Westchester.

Mr. Mellen testified that the question of the New Haven acquiring the Westchester was first brought to his attention in about 1905. Mellen's attitude then was that he did not think much of it. Among things he then said:

"It looked to me as if the company was organized as a strike, to sell out to use at the proper time."

Continuing the story, Mellen said:

"Feglers came to me at various times to ascertain if I would be interested in acquiring Westchester. I refused to lay the matter before the New Haven directors until Oakleigh Thorne came along. He wanted me to take it up with the directors and I said I had no objection.

Mellen had no idea the board would consider the matter favorably but said Mr. Morgan moved that a committee look into the matter. Mellen named Morgan, Rockefeller and Miller as the committee, with himself as a member ex-officio. He said when the committee reported a year later that the sum of $11,155,000 had been expended for the Westchester, he found fault with the report as not being sufficiently detailed. He said:

Humiliated By Morgan.

"I saw Mr. Morgan and told him that the report should have shown how each separate sum was spent. Mr. Morgan was very abrupt in his answer to me. He was disturbed at that time, as it was during the panic and I left his office feeling very much humiliated. Mr. Morgan asked: 'Do you think you know more about how it ought to be drawn than I do?' I allowed I didn't and dropped it. I thought I was entitled to know more about it than I did. I thought I was entitled to know why we ere paying $11,000,000 for a great big basketful of stuff that we did not know the value of. I never did know what the real motive for the deal was. I tried to find out and failed. I do not mean to convey the idea that anybody got away with money he was not entitled to."

Mellen explained that at the board meeting when this report was adopted, C. Hemingway, a director, entered his office and said:

"We are flying here, spending $11,000,000. I'd like to know something about it."

Others Get Cold Feet.

Mellen said he replied, "Suppose that you go an din odut; I barked my shins trying."

"I offered to appoint any director on a committee to get the information, but they all ducked. After the meeting of the board there was quite a Sanhedrin in my office. Several directors were disgusted. One of them, Mr. Skinner, exclaimed, 'Holy Caesarina Philip! What have you been doing here with $11,000,000 of New Haven money?' I suggested, 'I will appoint you a committee of one to fin dout' Skinner said, 'Not on your life.'" Mellen added grimly:

"There was enough said by Skinner and Hemingway to satisfy the other directors.

Mellen said that the original idea was that the Westchester would cost the New Haven about $5,000,000. Mellen said he also had expected that he would be made the 'goat of the entire business.' He said Mr. Rockefeller favored buying the Westchester but was staggered at the amount it cost.

PROPERTY OWNERS IN ANNEXED DISTRICTS QUESTION RIGHTS UNDER NEW CHARTER

WOULD HAVE CITY ENJOINED

Petition Alleges Annexation Under Charter Was Unauthorized By Constitution of Law

Ed Wilson, James Batson, J. W. Mix, Annie A. Hague, Orville Bullington and others have filed a petition for an injunction against the city of Wichita Falls and its officers to restrain them from exercising any authority over the territory annexed to the city by the adoption of the new Charter.

The petition alleges that 200 acres of the territory annexed lying north of the Fort Worth and Denver and outside of the McIntyre and Boyd additions is fit only for farm and grazing land and that the city is not in any position to extend to it any advantages. The same allegations are made as to 400 acres of the Spivey addition and south of the Wichita Valley.

The petition alleges that the annexation of all the territory outside the boundaries of the city on November 26, 1913, the date of the Charter election was illegal and unauthorized under the constitution and the laws of Texas.

The petitioners ask for an injunction restraining the tax assessor and collector from assessing, levying or collecting any taxes on the property described, or in any manner attempting to exercise authority.

LAITY RIGHTS FOR WOMEN DEFEATED

QUESTION IS ARGUED TODAY BEFORE M. E. SOUTH, CONFERENCE AT OKLA. CITY

TWO REPORTS SUBMITTED

Women Speakers Are Heard On Each Side of Debate—Suffrage Issue Enters

By Associated Press.

Oklahoma City, May 19.—Laity rights for women was defeated by the general conference of the M. E. Church, South, today by a vote of 171 to 105.

The conference extended the privilege of the floor to a woman representative on each side of the question. Majority and minority reports were presented. The minority report seeks to amend the discipline by giving women all the rights now exercised by laymen, while the majority recommends rejection of the request.

Miss Belle Bennett spoke, declaring laity rights were not a class question, but a church question. She said:

"Our church and the colored churches are the only ones that have not granted these rights."

Replying to a statement that the movement was not in harmony with wom[illegible] she declared all re- for[illegible] of harmony with existing [illegible]. She said the chi[illegible] and childless [illegible] rights, for personal [illegible] was cruel and puerile.

Mrs. T. D. King of Memphis, asserted that a majority of women did not want laity rights. She said:

"We don't want any more rights. We do not want to be emancipated, for we are not in a position that requires emancipation."

She claimed the woman suffrage question was at the bottom of the entire question of laity rights.

ADVOCATES HARROWING OF YOUNG COTTON AND CORN

Washington, May 19.—The beneficial effect of a well prepared seed bed and the use of good seed may be wholly or partially offset by improper or insufficient cultivation, is the advice of crop specialists of the department of agriculture.

Proper cultivation is an important factor in crop production. Cultivation should begin immediately after planting by running once or twice across the rows with a weeder or section harrow. After the plants come up at least two additional cultivations should be given with either the weeder or harrow in the case of either corn or cotton before the regular cultivators are used. Run diagonally across the rows with either of these implements, using the section harrow with the teeth slanted backward with an angle of 45 degrees and repeat a week later at right angles with the first cultivation.

The use of the weeder or section harrow is strongly advised for the early cultivation of corn, cotton and many other crops. It is best to use the weeder on very loose or sandy soils while the section harrow is preferable on clay or buckshot soils. This early cultivation with the weeder or harrow destroys all young grass and weeds and leaves the soil in fine condition and the cotton ready for chopping or thining. The use of the section harrow for the early cultivation of corn and cotton in the South is comparatively recent but is rapidly becoming general. One of the great advantages in its use, in addition to the excellent work done, is the extra amount of land that can be cultivated in a given time.

MAIL CARRYING ROADS LOSE CLAIM FOR MORE PAY

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 19.—The court of claims Monday in a test decision blasted the hope of mail carrying railroad for the collection of large sums, based on the claim that the government mail weighing system results in under-payment to the roads. The court in an opinion by Chief Justice Campbell dismissed the petition of the Chicago and Alton Railroad for $83,604. Nearly all the mail carrying railroads had filed similar suits. They claimed that since the institution of the present average weekly weighing system they have lost about $30,000,000 through underpayments. On a former trial judgment was rendered in favor of the railroads but the department of justice obtained a rehearing.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER IS GIVEN MISS LILLIAN BELL

Monday evening the teachers in the primary department of the First Presbyterian Sunday school honored Miss Lillian Bell, one of the teachers, who is a member of the graduating class of the high school with a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Miss Pauline Mears. An impromptu musical program was enjoyed, numbers beings contributed by Misses Laura Bell, Ritchie, Brothers, Walsh and the honoree, and pleasant conversation was also a feature. The nature of the affair was kept a secret from Miss Bell until after the serving of refreshments which consisted of pineapple sherbet, cake and pink and white mints. The guests were then invited to draw the favors of the evening. The dining table was centered by a large bamboo basket filled with pink and white roses and clusters of pink and white roses, tied with pink ribbon were banked around the foot of the basket. The streamers of pink led from the flowers in the center to each place and the numerous articles which made up the shower were all tied to one long ribbon, the end of which led to the honoree's place and were concealed under the massed blossoms. At a signal all pulled the ribbons, the first of the packages thus being disclosed to the surprised honoree and further examination disclosed the line of packages. Those participating in this most enjoyable affair were: Miss Lillian Bell, honor guest, Misses Laura Bell, Ritchie, Brothers, Spangler, Kate Haynes, Pauline Mears, Lois Brothers, Annette Walsh, Emma Haynes, Emma Tittle, Jodie Haynes Jamieson, Mesdames Stone, T. H. Barwise, J. L. Mears and Master Thomas Barwise.

GUILD ENJOYS ADDRESS BY DR. ECKEL MONDAY

A very interesting meeting of the Guild of the Good Shepherd was held Monday afternoon at the Episcopal Rectory. The business session was first in order and each of the service presidents made a report of the work of her division. Following this it was exceedingly good fortune of the Guild to enjoy a talk from Rev. Dr. Eckel, secretary of the Southwest Province of the Episcopal Church. SOME FACTS ABOUT MEATS For The Housekeeper

When I was in my old location, I had quite a few housekeepers come and talk with me or my meat cutter about the different kinds of meat that were available at low cost.

Quite a number of women thus learned something about meats that they didn't know before.

Both my meat cutter and myself are willing to continue that kind of educational work among the women of the city and we are sure that others, possibly yourself, can learn something to your advantage by coming and getting acquainted with the meat business from the inside. Any time of the day will be agreeable to us.

UNUSUAL TRIBUTE IS PAID MEMORY OF HANGED YOUTH

Arrival at Waco of Body of Mexican Boy Martinez is Occasion For Services

Waco, Texas, May 19.—Police surrounded the bier of Leon Cardena Martinez Jr., while friends and relatives of the executed lad paid tribute. Chief Hollis Barron headed the cordon, with a view of forestalling any anti-American demonstration. None was made.

Lengthy services calculated to pay tribute to the dead boy as a martyr were held over the body at the Field Undertaking parlors. Hundreds of Americans and Mexicans filled the small chapel and lobby and crowded blocked the sidewalks.

A deal of interest had been created by the wording of invitations sent out for the services. These bore the picture of young Martinez. Above the picture were the words "Here is the Victim." It also set forth that he was assassinated at Pecos.

Before the services opened Chief of Police Hollis Barron, with his force of plain clothes men and five policemen, arrived. They received assurances, however, that there would be nothing of an unfriendly nature towards the United States.

At the head of the coffin in which rested the body were three flags, those of the United States, of Texas and of Mexico. During most of the ceremony the father of the boy held in his hand a Texas flag.

The first part of the program was a short talk by Mrs. Spurgeon, well known in socialist circles. She spoke of the friendship that should exist between the United States and Mexico. Following her talk two letters said to be written by Leon Martinez on the morning before he was hanged, were read. One was addressed to his father and one to his mother. In his letter to his mother he set forth the injustice he claimed was being done him and disputed testimony introduced at the trial. He also sought to soothe her and to her not to be sad but when she thought of him to "pluck flowers and find his soul there."

A number of speakers paid tribute to the dead. These expressed the opinion that he was incapable of the crime for which he was hanged and that he would be remembered as a martyr. Juarez, Alberto and Manuel Martinez, small brothers of the dead boy, paid tribute to their brother. Others who talked were Augustin Sierra, Vincente Aldama, who is well known as a Mexican editor. Leon Martinez Sr., was somewhat bitter in his statements that his son had not received justice at the hands of Gov. Colquitt. He alleged that his attorneys heard Judge Maxey tell someone to tell Gov. Colquitt that the boy was under age at the time he is alleged to have committed the crime.

Senor Martinez thanked the people of Waco for their kindness and said he would bury the body of his son either in Mexico or Waco. He said that never would he bury the body in unfriendly soil and unless he was able to take it to its native land, he would bury it in Waco where the boy had been shown sympathy.

GETTING READY TO ENTERTAIN EDITORS

TO ADVERTISE RACE MEET

Committee Appointed To Attend To Repairs of Spillway Road—Weekly Session of Directors.

Messrs. Huey and Young were added to the Chamber of Commerce entertainment committee to assist in the formulation of plans for the entertainment of the Texas Editorial Association Convention here June 18-20 at the meeting of the directors this morning. The committee was instructed to get busy at once and to leave nothing undone that might contribute to the comfort and pleasure of the editors during their stay in Wichita Falls.

Secretary Miller was instructed to communicate with the United Clubs, the Civic League and other women's organizations of the city to ask their co-operation in the entertainment of the editors and their wives. Members of the Chamber of Commerce who went to San Antonio last year to invite the editors here this year said they had promised big things for Wichita Falls and that the editors were expecting a great entertainment here.

Passage Over Spillway.

Mr. Bohn who lives south of the lake was before the directors to urge that something be done to make the spillway at Lake Wichita passable. He said that the rocks laid across the spillway to form a roadway had been washed away in places leaving great holes into which horses stepped or buggy and wagon wheels ran making passage very hazardous. His attention was called to a published report that the water company was repairing the passageway, but he said nothing that was of benefit had been done. After some discussion a committee comprising Messrs. Huey Marlow and Talley was named to take up the matter with the county commissioners, the irrigation company, the water company or "whoever was guilty." The committee was instructed to do all in its power to see that the work was done before wheat harvest so that the farmers could market their wheat.

Correspondence relative to the establishment of an oxygen manufacturing plant here was ordered referred to the manufacturing committee.

Purse For Race Meet.

A committee comprising Messrs. Talley, Marlow and Marcus was named to secure pledges for a guarantee of $400 toward a $1,000 purse to be offered at the race meet here June 24-26 for a free for all purse. T. J. Jeffries, secretary of the race meet explained that if there was a sufficient number of entries the entry fees would pay for the purse itself but if there were only the minimum number of entries permitted under the rules which is seven, it would be necessary to make up about $400. He said that Childress and Clarendon merchants were pledging similar amounts for the races in those cities. In this connection the question of advertising the race meet was then brought up and it was voted that the Chamber of Commerce should undertake to advertise the meet. Secretary Miller was authorized to take charge of the advertising.

TEXAN IS RESTORED BY MAYR'S WONDERFUL STOMACH REMEDY

Alvarado Man Gets Appetite and Comfort Back After Taking First Dose

T. A. Hensley of Alvarado, Texas, sucered for a long time from derangements of the digestive tract. He had colic attacks and indigestion. His liver was inactive and he was in pain after eating.

He took Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. From the very first dose it brought swift results. He wrote:

"I have taken your treatment for stomach trouble and consider it a Godsend to suffering humanity. I have been suffering from stomach troubles for a long time, such as colic attacks, bloating after eating, sick spells, indigestion, constipation and inactive liver and gall stones. Now I do not feel like the same man. I can cheerfully recommend this remedy to all stomach sufferers."

Mr. Hensley's experience is typical of those of the thousands who have taken Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy with such success. The first dose proves.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid accretions and removes poisonous matter. It brings quick relief to sufferers from stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Many declare it has saved them from dangerous operations and many are sure that it has saved their lives.

The remarkable success of this remedy has caused many imitators so be cautious. Be sure it's Mayr's. Probably it is known among your own neighbors. Ask them. Go to Foshee & Lynch and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing in cases they know of—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Co., 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist will tell you it is wonderful. (Advt)

PLENTY OF LABORERS FOR THIS CITY'S PRESENT NEEDS

The Wichita Falls Trades and Labor Council at its meeting Monday night authorized the publication of a statement declaring that there were plenty of skilled and unskilled laborers in Wichita Falls for all the work in sight and advising laborers seeking employment to stay away from the city.

The statement follows:

"Whereas reports of early construction of buildings here have had the effect of drawing to our city large numbers of unemployed laborers and mechanics from surrounding country who upon arriving here found no work.

"And be it resolved by the Labor Unions that there is not at this time any more work in the building line to employ those who are residents of Wichita Falls, that members of all crafts are warned to stay clear of Wichita Falls as the report of great building operations will remain the same for some months to come. This resolution is passed in order to save unemployed mechanics and laborers the expense and trouble of coming to Wichita Falls for no purpose. There are plenty of working men to take care of all work in sight for some time."

Last night's meeting was held in the new hall at 607½ Indiana avenue. This hall will hereafter be used not only as headquarters for the Council but a number of locals as well.

Thirteen affiliated locals were represented at the meeting last night.

One of the matters taken up was an endorsement of the contract which the electrical workers are soon to present to employing electrical contractors.

SOCIABILITY AOTO TOUR TO COLORADO IS PLANNED

A Wichita Falls sociability tour to Colorado points is being talked of among motor enthusiasts here. On the tour it is proposed to visit some of the points represented in the party of Colorado tourists who were through here last week.

The plan is for twenty-five or thirty automobiles to make the trip. It is pointed out that more than that number will make the trip to Colorado anyway during the summer months and that by going together they could have a more enjoyable trip and at the same time advertise Wichita Falls. It is suggested that the tour ought to be made in July as the Elks convention meets at Denver then and a number of Wichita Falls Elks are planning to make the trip in their machines.

TIMES PUBLISHING CO.
ED HOWARD, Mgr.

An editor who started about twenty years ago with only 55c is now worth $100,000. His accumulation of wealth is owing to his frugality, good habits, strict attention to business, and the fact that an uncle died and left him $99,999.50.—Editor and Publisher.

Reports from the country are to the effect that the recent rains have not yet damaged the wheat crop, although enough and more than enough has fallen to make the crop. Farmers are now wishing for a few days of sunshine. By the middle of next week some few crops will be ready to cut, and by that time farm labor will be in demand. All farmers are of the opinion that this is going to prove the greatest crop in the history of the great Wichita Falls country, and if they are correct it means that considerably more than 1,000,000 bushels of wheat will be produced in Wichita county alone.

A Dallas paper is authority for the statement that ex-Senator Bailey is to come to Texas and make a few speeches in behalf of Col. Ball. When he needed friends in Texas there was none so ready and willing to aid him than was Col. Ball. Now that the opportunity presents itself, it is nothing but natural to expect that Mr. Bailey will come to the rescue of his friends, and at the same time even up with one of his enemies.

The nerve of that man Huerta is something awful. He has agreed to resign his office, but demands that he be given some right to name his successor. In addition to this he wants the United States to loan Mexico $400,000,000, and to lease Magdalena bay at $90,000,000 for ninety-nine years. But what he wants and what he will get are two different things. If the mediators delay their work a few days longer the indications now are that there will be no necessity to give Huerta or his claims any consideration at all. The constitutionalists are closing in on him rapidly, and if not interfered with by the United States will soon have Huerta whipped. It will then be up to the United States to deal with Carranza and Villa.

The Times is glad to see the Wichita Falls Trades and Labor Council take some action to stop the influx of outside laborers into the city when there is more work here than home laborers can do. It's the most natural thing in the world for laborers to flock to a live and growing city and very often this tendency brings in more laborers than there is work. In the past it has been the disposition of some to "cuss" the papers because they contained reports of new buildings and published the totals of building permits, these reports attracting more laborers to the city. The Times has always believed it a part of its duty to publish these reports and has often wondered why some of the unions instead of "grouching" didn't send out notices and take other steps to inform outside laborers that while there was considerable building going on Wichita Falls there were plenty of laborers auready here to do it. As we understand it one of the functions of labor organizations is to do this very thing. A union that can't do that falls short of doing its full duty, it seems to us.

ARE CHAIN STORES TOWN BUILDERS?

Inasmuch as Wichita Falls is soon to have one of the Kress stores, which are conducted on plans very similar to the Woolworth stores, the following from the Merchant's Trade Journal, a reputable paper, might be of some interest to the people of this city:

"It seems that F. W. Woolworth, head of the great 10-cent store syndicate, doesn't live in Oklahoma, and it seems also that his personal interests are not in Oklahoma though he has some stores in that state.

"Sometime ago it occurred to the people of Muskogee, Okla., that a new Y. M. C. A. building would be a valuable addition to their city, so a campaign was started for an $80,000 building. Now an $80,000 Y. M. C. A. building in a city the size of Muskogee should be a valuable addition and especially when such building is used in a right cause, and the people of Muskogee felt that they were planning a building to be used by the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of bettering their young men, that they were indeed working in a noble cause.

"As is always the case, the business men of the city were the first called upon by the committee and asked for their support in the movement and as might be expected these business men responded generously. But there was one store in town that did not respond because the manager felt that he had no authority to subscribe to this fund and to lend his support to the movement. That was the Woolworth store. But it occurred to the committee that Mr. Woolworth should be interested in this movement because it was for the betterment of this city in which he had a store, so telegrams were sent to Mr. Woolworth in New York city, but no response came, and finally a friend of the 10-cent store magnate and also a friend of Muskogee called upon Mr. Woolworth, but did not succeed in enlisting his support. It seems that Mr. Woolworth does not feel that his interests in Oklahoma are sufficient to warrant his helping the people of Muskogee develop their community by building, for the use of the Young Men's Christian association, but his interests are in New York city, where he has a wonderful building of his own, and here is certainly a lesson in this incident that should be worth something not only to Muskogee, Oklahoma, but to the people of every town and community throughout this country. Here is the genius of a great business that is reaching out in Muskogee and in other cities and developing business, but as shown in this instance, the profits of that business are not to be invested in the city and community where the business is developed, but is being planted in New York.

"While so much thought is being given to the mail order business of this country, the chain store proposition should not be lost sight of. In some respects the chain store is a greater menace to the local community than is the mail orders business. A chain store company such as Mr. Woolworth's, goes to a town to open a branch and everybody is pleased. Business men say there is another great store coming to our city, and it is considered as a part of the city, but in reality it is not. The manager of that store is apt to be an imported man who has absolutely no interest there except to draw his salary, and the money that is taken from the people of that city in place of being invested there in homes and in churches and schools and Y. M. C. A. buildings, and other improvements of benefit to the city, is taken to the home of the great buildings, all of which tend toward the betterment of the city where the genius, the head of the business lives, but does not benefit the community, the town, the city where the business was really developed, and this is the phase of the chain store proposition that should be consisted by the people of any town or city before boosting too much a proposition of this kind. Without a doubt the people of Muskogee, Okla., will think of some of these things before they extend an invitation to another proposition of this kind to come into their city."

As for the Times, it does not care how many stores Mr. Woolworth or Mr. Kress establishes. If it is their policy not to help the communities in which they are located, it is plain to see where they can undersell others who are selling the same lines of goods handled by them. In order to meet such competition, the merchant who has been in the habit of rendering financial aid to nearly every proposition presented to him, will be forced to adopt the plan of the Woolworths and Kresses. And when all our merchants become of that class town and city building organizations will receive but meager support.

PRESIDENT OF REBEKAHS VISITS LOCAL SISTERHOOD

Routine and Invitation Work Is Exemplified By Teams—Social Session Is Held

The local Rebekahs Monday were visited by the president of the Texas Assembly of Rebekahs, Mrs. Mary Kinciad of Dallas. A special meeting was called Monday afternoon, held in the Odd Fellows Hall and the routine of the lodge work was exemplified by the very competent teams of which the local may boast. The initiatory work was also exemplified and the president was lavish in her praises of the excellent work done in both instances.

Following this exemplification work refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and a social time followed. Mrs. Kinciad is now on an inspection tour of the State and left for Amarillo last night. She will perhaps visit with the lodge here on her return. While in the city Mrs. Kinciad was entetrained by Mrs. John Colboth, Noble Grand of the Rebekah degree of this city.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS TO SPEAK HERE TONIGHT

Judge W. E. Prescott of Paducah Will Address Voters at Court House at 8:30

Judge W. E. Prescott of Paducah, candidate for the Democratic nomination for congressman from this district, will address the voters of Wichita county at the court house tonight at 8:30.

Judge Prescott arrived this morning and will leave tonight for Wise county where he goes to spend several days in behalf of his candidacy. He formerly lived in Wichita county and is a brother of Lee Prescott, a well known farmer living north of town.

"I want to give the voters of Wichita county some of my ideas about the conduct of the National government and tell them something about myself," said Judge Prescott this afternoon," then they can tell whether they'll want to send me to Congress."

As Judge Prescott feels at home in Wichita Falls no reception committee has been appointed and it is not yet known who will introduce him tonight. It is expected that a representative audience will be out to hear him.

FUNERAL OF VERA CRUZ VICTIMS IN EMPRESS PICTURES

The arrival of the funeral ship Montana bringing the bodies of the American marines killed at Vera Cruz to New York and the scenes when the bodies were taken from the ships will be shown in moving pictures at the Empress tonight. The picture is a Pathe and it is unusual that such a notable picture should be shown in Wichita Falls within a week after it was taken in New York City.

There will be more than usual local interest in the picture from the fact that J. E. McDonald, a Wichita Falls boy, is a member of the Montana's crew. It is not yet known whether the picture shows young McDonald or not.

LONG JOURNEY MADE BY LITTLE CHILDREN

TRAVEL ALL THE WAY HERE FROM WICHITA, KANSAS, UNATTENDED

TRYING TO FIND RELATIVES

Police and Others Take Little Ones in Hand While Effort is Made to Locate "Grandma"

Travelling all the way from Wichita, Kansas, unattended a little girl apparently about seven years old and a baby boy, aged about two, arrived at the Union Station this afternoon but no one was there to meet them. The children were without a written message of any kind or any other means of identification except that the little girl said her name was Inez Browder and that the little boy's name was "F. C" and that they were going to Grandma Carter'.

The children were without money but kind hearted travelers saw that they got something to eat and the colored matron took care of them while an effort was being made to find out their destination or something about them.

The little girl carried a hand satchel and in this was found a trunk check. The trunk was located in the baggage room and opened and was found well filled with children's clothing. Some of the garments bore the name "Hallie Grider" as a laundry mark but the little girl said her name was not Hallie and that she did not know Hallie.

Chief of Police Nail learned of the plight of the children and began an investigation. The baby boy, a chubby, pretty and vivacious youngster took an immediate liking to the Chief and had lots of fun pulling at the official's moustache. Finally someone was found who said they knew a Mrs. Carter who lived in the vicinity of the Farmers' Union gin and who said he remembered having seen the same children there last year. An automobile was sent after her.

LATER—The police department located "Grandma," who is Mrs. Carter living near the brick and tile plane The children were turned over to her. She said she had received no intimation that they were coming.

I will teach summer school at 1207 8th street, beginning June 1st. For further information phone 1614. Mrs. A. J Miller. 3 tfc

PIPE LINE HEARING WANTED IN THIS CITY

COMMISSION'R SELLS AND LIUET. RICHARDSON MAY VISIT NORTHWEST TEXAS

LOCAL OIL MEN INTERESTED

Believe This District Could Easily Furnish 100,000,000 Barrels Was Proposed

It was learned today that efforts are being made by independent oil producers in this section to have a hearing held in this city on the question of a government pipe line from the Mid-Continent field to the Gulf of Mexico. Some of the producers have taken the matter up with the Washington officials who will hold the hearings in an effort to have them meet in this city. They will conduct hearings at a number of points in the Southwest, including Independence, Kansas and Tulsa and Bartlesville, Okla.

Cato Sells, commissioner of Indian affairs and Lieut. Richardson of the navy, who are to hold the hearings, left Washington Monday and the hearings will probably begin this week. Before the recent general decline in oil prices the question of a government pipe line had been broached and since the bottom fell out of Oklahoma and Texas prices the matter has been revived with new interest.

Last year the navy consumed 30,000,000 gallons of oil and this year it is estimated the amount will reach 100,000,000 gallons. That the government should take steps to conserve a fuel oil supply has long been urged.

Just how the Northwest Texas field would fare, if the pipe line should be built, is a matter of conjecture. It is believed here that a connecting line, joining the main pipe somewhere in North Texas, would be feasible and would make the line of material benefit to Northwest Texas producers.

In case the government should decide not to build the line, some Oklahoma producers have a plan to institute a per barrel tax on production in that State, to build an independent pipe line. The Mid-Continent production at this writing is about 160,000 barrels daily, but much of this is in the hands of companies that would not join in such a movement. Independent production, taxed at the proposed rate of ten cents a barrel, would net from $6000 to $10,000 daily.

It is expected that the itinerary of Messrs. Sells and Richardson will be announced shortly and local oil men hope that Wichita Falls will be included.

HORSES ARRIVING FOR JUNE'S RACING

TWENTY-THREE ARE NOW IN TRAINING ON COURSE AT LAKE WICHITA

MANY OTHERS DUE SHORTLY

Expected Fully 100 Will Be Here For Opening Race Meet June 23

Moore & Company of Waco, well known horsemen, came in today with a string of five running horses including George Washington, Colonel Austin, Young Pansy, Our Leader and Jellico. The arrival of these horses swells the string in training at the lake grounds to twenty-three head and inquiries received by Secretary T. J. Jeffries indicate that the next twenty days will see over a hundred head of race horses at work on the track here.

Another recent arrival for training here was George Wells of Topeka, Kansas, with his famous pacer, General Bellpepper with a mark of 2:10 3-4. Charley Harrold is here with his noted stake horse Pedro.

Mary Malone, 2:11 1-4, Baroness May, a green pacer, Alice C, a three year old pacer and Horace Gana, a yearling trotter, comprise the string which T. J. Jeffries of Childress is training. Al Diffenback of Paris, is here with his pacer, Counterpart. Jim Gardner of Fort Worth, has arrived with Patrick E, his well known pacer. Joe Ratliff of Florence, is here with his running mare, Flying Pearl. J. W. Williams of San Antonio, has five head of jumpers here.

The wet weather of course has prevented much training work but a day or two of sunshine will bring busy scenes at the track. The meet here opens June 23.

Secretary Jeffries has received an announcement from Clarendon that the merchants there have increased the free for all pace stake to $1000 and that the stockmen of Donley county have raised a purse of $500 for a one and one-eighth mile derby. Childress also has raised a $1,000 purse for the free for all pace.

SENATOR SUTHERLAND IN SPEECH AGAINST REPEAL.

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 19.—Senator Sutherland of Utah declared in the Senate Monday that in the history of free government no such astounding proposition ever before had been presented to a great legislative body as the demand of President Wilson that Congress should repeal the tolls exemption law, "without raising the question whether we were right or wrong." Sutherland added:

"To comply with the request would so utterly be subversive of every consideration of self-respect that even those who intend to capitulate make a pretense of justifying their action on defensible grounds before acceding to the president's request. Senator Sutherland said he intended to vote against the repeal, although he said he was in favor of arbitrating the dispute.

I WANT TO APOLOGIZE

In my recent advertisement I said that there were a few foolish people who would rather buy a home than an automobile, etc, I ran this ad for two weeks without having a single inquiry, while to the one that I ran advertising a Ford automobile I had scores of inquiries. So I have come to the conclusion that there are none of the foolish people that I spoke of in or around Wichita Falls. The wise ones, however, that are buying these automobiles instead of homes are also wise enough to insure them, and I have been getting my part of that and am prepared to serve you in this capacity or any other in the insurance line. "I write all kinds of insurance, Fire, Lightning, Windstorm, Life, Accident, or Bonds, and write it right." I want to write yours. Call me and give me the date your present policy expires and I will do the rest.

BANNER IS PRESENTED TO LOCAL SECURITY LODGE

The Knights and Ladies of Security held an open meeting Monday evening in the Odd Fellows Hall, the meeting being of more than usual interest on account of the fact that the State banner was presented to the local organization This banner goes to the organization showing the greatest increase in membership in any one quarter and as the Wichita Falls organization is a comparatively recent one, the winning of this banner has a good deal of significance.

At the meeting Monday evening a program was carried out as follows: Music by the orchestra; recitation, Miss Ashford; piano number by Prof Pfeifer; reading by Miss Ruth Conwell, piano solo, Wayne Small; recitation, Miss Lucile Ashford; piano solo, Miss Ina Bracey Ponder; music by the orchestra. The State banner was then presented to the organization by District Manager W. T. Dykeman, the presentation being followed by speeches by various of the members for the good of the order. Refershments were served and a social hour followed, dancing and other amusements being enjoyed. A good number of members were in attendance at this social meeting and a number of visitors from Burkburnett and Iowa Park were present.
